

Trains 2022 All Media Show

Juror: Jessie Boyland & Glenda Kotchish

This exhibit is a focal point of Art Works' openings. Artists were asked to submit work featuring trains, train stations, train bridges, and anything train related. Any medium was acceptable. The Richmond Railroad Museum and Art Works partnered to produce this exhibit. On September 24, 2022, the Richmond Railroad Museum hosts Train Day, a day of fun activities at the museum, free and open to the public. A number of entries are on display at the museum in addition to the exhibit at Art Works.

You can view the artwork on Art Works website: artworksrv.com. On the site, do a quick search for "Trains" to display the page and all the art.
